As an exim company, Mack Global Trade also specializes in the global distribution of authentic Indian handicrafts and artifacts. Our diverse range includes metal and stone sculpture and idols, detailed wood carvings, intricately designed pottery, vibrant textiles, exquisite local paintings and many other handcrafted items that reflect India's rich cultural heritage and skilled craftsmanship.

We are committed to promoting and preserving the unique artistry of Indian artisans by bringing their work to international markets, ensuring that each piece is of the highest quality and culturally significant. Our goal is to provide our global clients with beautiful, unique and culturally enriching artisanal creations that tell the story of India's artistic traditions.
